Bilbao, Spain,
1st and 2nd of February 2018

On 1st February all participants of PbpinVet met in Bilbao, Spain. Tamara Rodriguez and Itziar welcome them at their school "Salesianos Deusto".

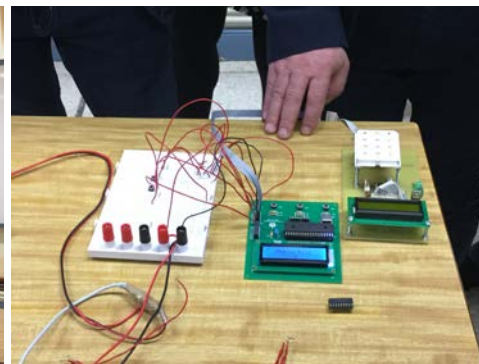

The Headmaster had a presentation of the school and then Tamara introduced the Agenda.

After that the whole staff of teachers had an interesting visit into the school where students and teachers were studying or training in the workshops. During the visit there was a demonstration of making a breadboard with a milling machine.

After lunch, there was the presentation of the Spanish KIT and module.

A group of students, driven by Itziar, showed their LCD training kit and its module.

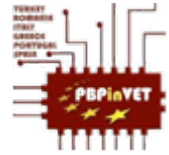

At the end of first day, we visited the amazing museum of Guggenheim. At the end of the day of the meeting, the participants of the project met at Kasko restaurant, in the old town, to have a delicious meal of Basque tradition.
